MLBMA Resume Board Rules and Disclaimer

Overview

MLBMA is pleased to make available its new Resume Board for employers and job seekers. This resource service will allow experienced industry professionals, currently not employed by an MLBMA member company, to post their resumes (at no charge). It will provide MLBMA member companies a centralized, easy to use format to view the resumes, access contact information, and the ability to tap into some of the wealth of education, knowledge and experience that is present in the Great Lakes LBM marketplace (at no charge).

Disclaimer

MLBMA reserves the right as it sees fit, to post, refuse to post, remove from potential posting, and limit the size of the posting, at any time, without prior approval of the person requesting the resume posting. Job seekers currently employed by MLBMA member companies are not eligible to post resumes. MLBMA cannot guarantee the privacy of job seekers submitting their resumes for posting.

MLBMA does not guarantee the accuracy or legitimacy of the posted resumes. We do not investigate the individuals, their employment or educational backgrounds. We do not accept any liability for misstatements or damages to anyone resulting from these resume postings.

The Resume Board is intended as an MLBMA member service and information resource. MLBMA provides no intermediary job placement services. By utilizing this service, MLBMA member companies viewing the resumes and job seekers posting resumes, agree to release and discharge the MLBMA, its subsidiaries, and all of their officers, directors, representatives, and employees from any and all claims, demands, actions, losses, damages, or liability that might arise from any use of this website or service.
